

オラフ・ショーベン

国連事務次長補 兼 国連開発計画(UNDP)開発政策局長

米国ジョージ・ワシントン大学院修士課程終了(国際関係)。1997年から2000年までオスロの経済分析センター(ECON)国際開発部長、1992年から1997年まで世界銀行環境専門家。2001より2005年までノルウェー政府国際開発担当政務次官を務め、国際開発大臣と共に開発援助の政策立案・実施を担当。2005年から2007年までUNDP 開発政策局環境エネルギー一部長。2007年より現職。UNDPの重点活動分野を統括する一方、組織業務全般への能力強化とジェンダー平等の統合にも取り組む。

Mr. Olav Kjørven

UN Assistant Secretary General and Director for Bureau of Development Policy, UNDP

Mr. Olav Kjørven assumed his current post in 2007 and is responsible for UNDP's key practice areas. He also manages teams that promote the integration of capacity development and gender equality throughout the work of the organization. From 2005 to 2007, he led UNDP's Environment and Energy Group. Prior to joining UNDP, from 2001 to 2005, Mr. Kjørven served the Government of Norway as State Secretary for International Development. Together with the Minister of International Development, he was responsible for policy making and the overall management of Norwegian international development efforts. He also held the post of Political Adviser to the Minister of International Development and Human Rights (1997-2000). Mr. Kjørven has also worked as Director of International Development at ECON--Centre for Economic Analysis in Oslo (2000-2001) and an Environmental Specialist at the World Bank (1992-1997). He holds a Master of Arts in International Affairs from George Washington University.